

Book Club Suggested Topics

Bewitched: A Sean Colbeth Mystery (Book Five)

1. Character Exploration:

- Sean Colbeth: Discuss Sean's journey as he revisits his childhood memories and grapples with the harsh realities of a village where everyone knows each other. How does his past shape his present investigation?
- Suzanne: Explore Suzanne's role as Sean's confidante and pillar of support. How does her presence impact Sean's emotional and investigative journey?
- Vas: Consider Vas's cameo and its implications for the next book. What mischief does Sean's best friend get into this time?
- Other Characters: Analyze the impact of familiar faces from previous novels, especially the unexpected one from Bygones.

2. Setting and Atmosphere:

- Windeport: The bulk of the story unfolds in Windeport. Discuss the significance of this setting and the locations unique to this installment.
- The Mysterious Icehouse: Explore the symbolism and mystery surrounding the ice house—a place that forces Sean to confront his past.

3. Themes:

- Memory and Nostalgia: How does Sean's connection to a cold case from his teenage years evoke nostalgia and influence his present investigation?
- Fire and Transformation: Consider the metaphorical significance of walking through fire to reach the other side. How does this theme resonate throughout the novel?

4. Plot Twists and Surprises:

- Avoiding Spoilers: Share your reactions to unexpected plot developments without revealing spoilers. Which twists caught you off guard?

5. Writing Style and Craft:

- Narrative Voice: Discuss the writing style and how it enhances the mystery genre.
- Pacing and Tension: Analyze the pacing—did it keep you engaged? How did tension build throughout the novel?

6. Comparisons to Previous Novels:

- How does Bewitched differ from or build upon the earlier Sean Colbeth mysteries?